The Process

After you receive more information about Zonta, you may be interested in becoming a candidate for membership. Your application will then be submitted to the club membership committee, who reviews proposals for membership, and presents the names of all candidates to the club board with its recommendations.

A candidate must come from a recognized business or profession and be willing to actively support and implement the Objects of Zonta International. All candidates for membership, meeting the requirements for membership as stated in the Zonta International Bylaws, shall be considered. Approval for membership is made by the club board unless the club bylaws provide otherwise.
